

Most valuable ski areas

The value of a ski area is determined by the number of Skimiles, the comfort of the ski area and its snow reliability (the methodology is explained here).

As the data collection on ski area comfort and in particular on snow reliability has not yet been completed, it is not possible to determine a complete ranking by now.